HAPPY BIRTHDAY HAPPY BIRTHDAY HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Have a child whose birthday falls during safer at home/shelter in place? I do. It can still be magical. At least that's what I'm telling my soon-to-be birthday girl.

- For young or elementary school children, consider this free resource to party with friends: <https://www.skyzone.com/virtual-birthday-party>
- Older kids might enjoy having a synchronized movie watching session with integrated chat box: <https://www.netflixparty.com/>
- Other birthday ideas that can work with social distancing: ask friends/teachers/family to make birthday signs and/or sing happy birthday as they drive by your home. Put a sign up asking anyone/everyone to honk for the birthday kid as they pass your home. Order cupcakes locally with delivery to friends/family homes (or deliver to doorsteps yourself, if allowable) and have host a zoom video call to eat them together, sing, etc. You can get a free zoom account that allows up to 40 minutes for group call: <https://zoom.us/pricing>
